V. INVESTIGATION

a. Interviews

In her statement to COPA on October 9, 2014, complainant Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she was at home with her boyfriend, [REDACTED] when they engaged in a loud verbal altercation. However, Ms. [REDACTED] denied that [REDACTED] hit her or threatened to hit her as it was later alleged. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she and [REDACTED] heard loud pounding at the door and a voice saying, “[REDACTED] open the door.” [REDACTED] recognized the voice as her father’s voice, Sergeant [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] “busted open the door,” immediately entered the apartment, grabbed [REDACTED] by the shoulders, pulled him forward, and screamed at him, “I’m going to kick your ass.” Ms. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] screamed at Sergeant [REDACTED], pulled away from Sergeant [REDACTED] and stated, “What the fuck bitch. This is none of your business bitch. Get the fuck out of my house,” as Ms. [REDACTED] pushed Sergeant [REDACTED] away from [REDACTED]. She and [REDACTED] told Sergeant [REDACTED] to leave the apartment and Sergeant [REDACTED] exited. [REDACTED] called 911 and reported what occurred with Sergeant [REDACTED]. Within five minutes of [REDACTED] making the call, Ms. [REDACTED] heard another knock on the door. After opening the door, they observed Sergeant [REDACTED] accompanied by a uniformed officer of Asian descent. Sergeant [REDACTED] and this officer, now identified as Officer [REDACTED] immediately grabbed [REDACTED] and tried to tackle him to the floor. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] pulled away and Officer [REDACTED] took [REDACTED] to the hallway. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that their neighbor across the hallway, known to Ms. [REDACTED] by the first name of [REDACTED]³ was in the hallway when [REDACTED] was placed in handcuffs. Officer [REDACTED] handcuffed [REDACTED] as additional officers responded to the scene. Ms. [REDACTED] remained in the apartment and spoke with Officer [REDACTED] about the incident, but he and other officers did not listen to her side of the story. Ms. [REDACTED] stated the officers did not believe her claim that [REDACTED] did not physically abuse her or threaten to harm her. [REDACTED] was placed under arrest and Sergeant [REDACTED] left the scene. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that there is no history of [REDACTED] being physically abusive to her or of any domestic violence between them.

Ms. [REDACTED] stated that, later that night, [REDACTED] mother, [REDACTED] came to the apartment, picked her up and together they went to the 019th District Station to file a complaint on Sergeant [REDACTED]. Upon arrival to the 019th District Station, Ms. [REDACTED] was informed that she could not file the complaint there and that she needed to go to the 014th District Station. Ms. [REDACTED] left the 019th District Station and went to the 014th District Station.

Upon arrival to the 014th District Station, Ms. [REDACTED] informed the officers at the front desk that she wanted to file a complaint against Sergeant [REDACTED]. Within minutes a white female sergeant, now identified as Sergeant [REDACTED] approached Ms. [REDACTED] and asked her if she was [REDACTED]. Ms. [REDACTED] related that Sergeant [REDACTED] appeared to know who she was and why she was there. Ms. [REDACTED] spoke with Sergeant [REDACTED] and told her what occurred at the apartment with Sergeant [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. According to Ms. [REDACTED] Sergeant [REDACTED] told her that Sergeant [REDACTED] was a good sergeant and a good father and tried to discourage her from filing the complaint. [REDACTED] stated that while she was talking to Sergeant [REDACTED] remained in the waiting area with Ms. [REDACTED] daughter, [REDACTED]. Shortly thereafter, Ms. [REDACTED] saw Sergeant [REDACTED] with [REDACTED] in his arms, at which time she ran toward him, screamed at Sergeant [REDACTED] and took [REDACTED] from him. Sergeant [REDACTED] grabbed [REDACTED] by the arm in a rough manner, pinching her skin, and told her to leave the station. Sergeant [REDACTED] told her that she could not make a complaint and that she needed to leave. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that Sergeant [REDACTED] did not do anything about Sergeant [REDACTED] actions toward her and did not file a complaint against him as requested. Sergeant [REDACTED] escorted [REDACTED] out of the station. Ms. [REDACTED] stated that she sustained a minor bruise to the back of her arm, but she did not seek medical treatment. Sergeant [REDACTED] continued to knock loudly on the door calling for [REDACTED]. As they walked toward the door, the door busted open, and Sergeant [REDACTED] entered the apartment. [REDACTED] immediately complained and told him to "Get the fuck out of [his] apartment." Sergeant [REDACTED] grabbed him by the shoulders, [REDACTED] pulled away, and [REDACTED] intervened. Sergeant [REDACTED] left the apartment at the request of [REDACTED] called the police and complained. Shortly thereafter, someone knocked on the apartment door. [REDACTED] opened the door to find Sergeant [REDACTED] and an officer now identified as Officer [REDACTED]. They entered the apartment and tried to handcuff [REDACTED] but he pulled away. Officer [REDACTED] then requested that [REDACTED] go into the hallway and [REDACTED] complied.

She held [REDACTED] arm trying to calm him down while Officer [REDACTED] held the other arm. [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] to calm down as the officer completed handcuffing [REDACTED]. Additional unknown uniformed officers responded, assisted Officer [REDACTED] in handcuffing [REDACTED] and escorted him downstairs. [REDACTED] stated that none of the officers that responded listened to his side of the story or his complaint against Sergeant [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that as Officer [REDACTED] escorted him down the stairs Sergeant [REDACTED] punched him twice on his back. The officers placed [REDACTED] in a squad car and refused to listen to his story. [REDACTED] indicated that he requested a sergeant, but he never observed a sergeant⁵ respond to the scene.

After receiving this phone call from [REDACTED] Ms. [REDACTED] left work and contacted [REDACTED]. She met [REDACTED] at the apartment and together they went to the 014th District station to check on [REDACTED] and to file a complaint against Sergeant [REDACTED].

While at the station, officers at the front desk and a white female sergeant, now identified as Sergeant [REDACTED] tried to discourage them from filing a complaint against Sergeant [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] took Ms. [REDACTED] to another location to talk to her in private, and Ms. [REDACTED] was not a witness to that conversation. Ms. [REDACTED] remained in the waiting area with [REDACTED] daughter, until Sergeant [REDACTED] entered the station and took [REDACTED] from her. Officer [REDACTED] then grabbed [REDACTED] hand to escort him out of the apartment, [REDACTED] pushed Sergeant [REDACTED] on his chest and swung at Sergeant [REDACTED]. Officer [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] to stop his actions and got in between [REDACTED] and Sergeant [REDACTED]. Officer [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] kept verbally assaulting Sergeant [REDACTED] who requested the arrest of [REDACTED]. While in the hallway, [REDACTED] neighbor came out into the hallway and told [REDACTED] to calm down, which he did. Officer [REDACTED] called for additional units and a sergeant and waited for them. Upon arrival, he called and texted [REDACTED] but she failed to answer. Sergeant [REDACTED] rang the doorbell of the apartment building to no avail. He heard a commotion coming from the third floor and rang the rest of the doorbells until someone opened the main door to the building. As Sergeant [REDACTED] went up the stairs, he heard [REDACTED] voice saying, "Stop hitting me," at which time he knocked on the apartment door. Someone now identified as [REDACTED] stated, "Stop being so fucking nosey. Get out of here."¹⁶ Sergeant [REDACTED] knocked harder and called out [REDACTED] name. [REDACTED] did not answer, and fearing for her safety, he forced the door opened and went inside. Once inside the apartment, he approached [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and told [REDACTED] he was going to jail.

Sergeant [REDACTED] observed redness to [REDACTED] neck. Sergeant [REDACTED] then heard sirens and left the apartment. He met Officer [REDACTED] outside the apartment building, briefly told him about the domestic dispute between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] and Officer [REDACTED] went into the apartment building and entered [REDACTED] apartment after he opened the door. Once inside the apartment, Sergeant [REDACTED] and Officer [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] that he was under arrest for domestic battery to [REDACTED] was upset; he pushed Sergeant [REDACTED] and swung at him, striking Sergeant [REDACTED] on his upper body. Sergeant [REDACTED] grabbed one of [REDACTED] arms, while Officer [REDACTED] grabbed the other arm. They were able to take [REDACTED] to the hallway where Officer [REDACTED] tried to calm [REDACTED].

Officer [REDACTED] called for assistance, while he and Sergeant [REDACTED] detained [REDACTED] in the hallway. Sergeant [REDACTED] saw [REDACTED] next-door neighbor tell [REDACTED] to calm down as additional officers responded and took over. Sergeant [REDACTED] walked down the stairs and out of the building where he was met with Sergeant [REDACTED]. He briefed Sergeant [REDACTED] on what happened and left the scene. Sergeant [REDACTED] said that he grabbed and detained [REDACTED] while in the hallway, when he was trying to assist Officer [REDACTED] with the arrest of [REDACTED]. However, he released [REDACTED] the moment the responding officers arrive at the scene and take control of [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] called Sergeant [REDACTED] at the station and told her what happened at the apartment and with his daughter. Sergeant [REDACTED] warned Sergeant [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] would be going to the station upset. When Sergeant [REDACTED] arrived at the station, he observed [REDACTED] causing a disturbance and being loud and belligerent while in the lobby area where there were other civilians. Sergeant [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] to leave the station before she was placed under arrest. Sergeant [REDACTED] escorted [REDACTED] to the front door, but did not grab her by the arm. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied interfering with [REDACTED] filing a complaint and stated that [REDACTED] was causing a disturbance rather than filing a complaint.

Sergeant [REDACTED] denied punching [REDACTED] or pushing him when they were going down the stairs and stated that he left the scene prior to [REDACTED] being escorted out of the third-floor. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegations made against him and only admitted that he did push the apartment door open when no one answered the door and after he heard the commotion between his daughter and [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] explained these actions by stating that he feared for the life of his daughter and granddaughter.

b. Digital Evidence

The In-Car Camera videos¹⁸ obtained captured the arrival of Officers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at the location of incident and the separate arrival of Sergeant [REDACTED]. The video captured the officers and Sergeant [REDACTED] talking outside. The camera also moved on several occasions as though being struck by something. The in-car camera of Officer [REDACTED] vehicle captured [REDACTED] sitting in the backseat, upset, and argumentative. It further captured [REDACTED] striking his own head against the cage and refusing to exit the vehicle upon their arrival at the police station. The camera remained active while the vehicle was parked in the parking lot of the 014th District Station, capturing the arrival of an ambulance, [REDACTED] in a transportable medical chair, and [REDACTED] being taken by the paramedics.

c. Physical Evidence

Evidence Technician (ET) photographs¹⁹ taken of [REDACTED] depicted some redness to her face and neck areas. E.T. photos of [REDACTED] depicted a bandage to his right knee, a bruise to the left elbow and his lower back area. E.T. photos of [REDACTED] apartment depicted damage to the apartment door, the lock, and its frame.

The Event Queries²⁰ documented several 911 calls made by several individuals reporting a domestic disturbance in the third floor involving a male and a female, now identified as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] where there was fighting and screaming, doors slamming, lots of knocking, and banging. There were reports of a child being present in the home during the altercations. There were reports from the complainant ([REDACTED]) that he had a disturbance with his girlfriend's father, an off-duty police officer.

The OEMC 911 transmission²¹ documented similar information as documented in the event queries. Tenants of the building and neighbors reported domestic altercations from the third-floor apartment between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

d. Documentary Evidence

The Arrest Report²² of [REDACTED] documented that he was arrested for battery, domestic battery, two counts of resisting/obstructing a police officer, and damage to public property. The report documented that Sergeant [REDACTED] went to his daughter's apartment to babysit his granddaughter when he heard a commotion between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] heard [REDACTED] state, "Stop hitting me," at which he knocked on the door calling out to her, but a male voice, now identified as [REDACTED] told him to mind his fucking business and directed profanities at him. Sergeant [REDACTED] fearing for the lives of his daughter and granddaughter pushed the apartment door open and entered. Sergeant [REDACTED] tried to place [REDACTED] into custody when [REDACTED] pushed off Sergeant [REDACTED] and struck him on the right arm. Responding officers arrived at the scene and placed [REDACTED] under arrest. While [REDACTED] was in the squad car, he repeatedly kicked the inside door/window of the vehicle causing damage to the door.

The Case Report²³ documented the same information as the arrest report. The case report also documented that [REDACTED] refused to sign a complaint against [REDACTED] although red marks were observed on her neck and a bandage was observed on her left hand. Officer [REDACTED] also documented that when he was placing [REDACTED] under arrest, [REDACTED] became aggressive toward Sergeant [REDACTED] pushed him, and swung at him as he stated, "You are not locking me up bitch." Additional units responded and assisted Officer [REDACTED] with the arrest of [REDACTED]

The Tactical Response Report²⁴ of Sergeant [REDACTED] documented that he was off-duty at the time of the incident and that [REDACTED] knowing the Sergeant to be a Chicago Police Officer, pushed him and flailed his hands striking Sergeant [REDACTED] resisted and did not allow himself to be handcuffed. He pulled away, attacked officers, and was an imminent threat of causing a battery. Sergeant [REDACTED] gave verbal commands and used escort holds to stop battery.

e. Additional Evidence

Medical Records²⁵ from St. Mary's Hospital document that [REDACTED] was admitted on October 9, 2014 for pain to his right knee. The medical records also document that [REDACTED] complained that he sustained the injury due to a door being slammed and hitting his right knee. There was no swelling noted and X-Rays indicate that there were no fractures. The final diagnosis was a contusion to the right knee.

VI. ANALYSIS

COPA finds that Allegation #1 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he broke the apartment door to gain entry without justification, is EXONERATED. Sergeant [REDACTED] stated that he heard a loud commotion coming from [REDACTED] apartment and heard [REDACTED] screaming, "Stop hitting me," causing him to believe that [REDACTED] was being battered by [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] feared for the safety of his daughter and granddaughter, because he believed [REDACTED] battered [REDACTED] in the past and when [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] failed to open the apartment door he believed his daughter was in trouble. Witness [REDACTED] and other OEMC callers indicated that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are constantly arguing and that [REDACTED] battered [REDACTED] in the past. By their own accounts, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] admitted to arguing loudly around the time Sergeant [REDACTED] arrived at the apartment. COPA's analysis of these facts lead us to conclude that while it is accurate that Sergeant [REDACTED] broke the door to enter the apartment, his actions were legally justified, based on the exigent circumstances. Specifically, Sergeant [REDACTED] was justified in breaking the apartment door to check on the safety and well-being of his family members, who appeared to be in distress.

COPA finds that Allegation #2 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he caused damage to the apartment door, is EXONERATED. Sergeant [REDACTED] explained the reason that he forced entry into the apartment was that he feared for the lives of [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] admitted that he caused the damage to the apartment door because he believed that his daughter was a victim of a domestic battery at that moment and in the past. Therefore, his actions were proper and justified due to the exigent circumstances.

COPA finds that Allegation #3 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he entered the apartment without permission or justification, is EXONERATED. Sergeant [REDACTED] explained his reasons for forcing entry as described in the analysis for Allegations #1-2. Witness [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was involved in a verbal altercation with [REDACTED] and engaged in verbal and physical domestic altercations with [REDACTED] in the past where the police had responded. The OEMC records showed that unknown neighbors called the police on [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] due to their constant altercations, reinforcing the reasonableness of Sergeant [REDACTED] fear for his daughter's life and well-being when she failed to answer the door. Sergeant [REDACTED] actions were justified and this allegation is EXONERATED.

COPA finds that Allegation #4 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he engaged in a verbal altercation with [REDACTED] is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove whether Sergeant [REDACTED] engaged in a verbal altercation or not with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] admitted that she and [REDACTED] yelled at Sergeant [REDACTED] when he entered the apartment and during the arrest of [REDACTED]. Officers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] directed profanities at Sergeant [REDACTED] but that Sergeant [REDACTED] ignored him and briefly responded. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied engaging in an argument or verbally abusing [REDACTED]. Therefore, there is insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove that Sergeant [REDACTED] engaged in a verbal altercation with [REDACTED].

COPA finds that Allegation #5 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he grabbed and attempted to place [REDACTED] down onto the floor, is EXONERATED. Sergeant [REDACTED] admitted that, when he entered the apartment, he grabbed [REDACTED] and told him he was going to be arrested, but immediately let him go to seek police assistance. Sergeant [REDACTED] also stated that he assisted Officer [REDACTED] in holding [REDACTED] who resisted Officer [REDACTED] but that he immediately let go of [REDACTED] arm when responding officers arrived at the scene and took over. Officers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and witness [REDACTED] supported Sergeant [REDACTED] account. Sergeant [REDACTED] actions were compliant with the Department's Rules and Regulations.

COPA finds that Allegation #6 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he threatened to physically harm [REDACTED] when he stated to him, "I'm going to kick your ass," is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence or witnesses to prove or disprove whether Sergeant [REDACTED] threatened [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] did not mention this threat and neither did witness [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegation and his account was supported by the officers at the scene.

COPA finds that Allegation #7 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he punched [REDACTED] on his back, is UNFOUNDED. Sergeant [REDACTED] stated that he left the apartment and hallway area immediately after [REDACTED] was placed under arrest by the responding officers and went downstairs prior to [REDACTED] being escorted down the stairs. Officers [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] stated that they did not see Sergeant [REDACTED] after [REDACTED] was handcuffed or escorted down the stairs. Further, the officers stated that there was no commotion or complaints from [REDACTED] as he was taken downstairs and into the squad car. The responding officers indicated that Sergeant [REDACTED] was not near [REDACTED] after he was placed under arrest or escorted down. Further, the officers denied seeing Sergeant [REDACTED] having any verbal or physical contact with [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was not a witness to the misconduct nor was witness [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegation.

COPA finds that Allegation #8 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he falsely arrested [REDACTED] is EXONERATED. It is undisputed that [REDACTED] was arrested. However, there was sufficient evidence to establish probable cause that [REDACTED] committed a domestic battery against Ms. [REDACTED]. Other tenants and neighbors called 911 to request police assistance further supporting Sergeant [REDACTED] decision to have [REDACTED] arrested. In addition, during the arrest of [REDACTED] Sergeant [REDACTED] and Officer [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] resisted, pushed Sergeant [REDACTED] on his chest and struck Sergeant [REDACTED] on his arm causing a battery to Sergeant [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegation and explained that the arrest was justified due to [REDACTED] overall actions not only against Ms. [REDACTED] but during his arrest and against Sergeant [REDACTED]. Therefore, the facts support the conclusion that the arrest was proper, and this allegation is exonerated.

COPA finds that Allegation #9 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he impeded in an investigation when he refused to allow [REDACTED] to file a complaint, is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove whether Sergeant [REDACTED] impeded or not with the investigation or if he intervened in allowing [REDACTED] to file a complaint at the station. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegation, and his account was supported by Sergeant [REDACTED] who indicated that [REDACTED] was complaining about the arrest of [REDACTED] not Sergeant [REDACTED]. There are no witnesses to the incident other than [REDACTED] who was sitting in the waiting area and did not hear what verbally occurred.

COPA finds that Allegation #10 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he grabbed and pinched [REDACTED] arm in a rough manner, is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence or witnesses to either prove or disprove whether Sergeant [REDACTED] committed this action. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegation and his account was supported by Sergeant [REDACTED] and Officer [REDACTED]. However, [REDACTED] said that Sergeant [REDACTED] grabbed [REDACTED] by the arm and pulled her out of the police station. [REDACTED] sustained a small bruise under her arm and accused her father of grabbing her arm roughly as he escorted her out of the station. However, there are no photographs of the injury and it is unknown if the injury was sustained because of Sergeant [REDACTED] actions or due to the domestic battery between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

COPA finds that Allegation #11 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he threatened [REDACTED] when he stated, "You better get out of here, if you know what's good for you," is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence or witnesses to prove or disprove whether Sergeant [REDACTED] threatened [REDACTED]. Sergeant [REDACTED] admitted that he told [REDACTED] to leave the station because she was being loud, verbally abusive and causing a commotion, but denied the allegation that he threatened her, and his account was supported by Sergeant [REDACTED].

COPA finds that Allegation #12 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that he escorted [REDACTED] out of the 014th District Station to prevent her from filing a complaint against him, is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove whether Sergeant [REDACTED] prevented [REDACTED] from filing a complaint against him or was preventing the arrest of [REDACTED] when he told her to leave the station. Although [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] indicated that [REDACTED] went into the 014th District station to file a complaint, [REDACTED] was not present during [REDACTED] conversation with Sergeant [REDACTED] since she was sitting in the waiting area with [REDACTED]. Further, when Sergeant [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] to leave the station, it was because of the disturbance that she was causing at the front desk area. Sergeant [REDACTED] denied the allegation and stated that he escorted her out because he did not want [REDACTED] getting arrested due to her behavior at the front desk.

COPA finds that Allegation #1 against Sergeant [REDACTED] that she violated General Order 08-001-02, B-2-3, in that Sergeant [REDACTED] failed to obtain a Complaint Registered number against Sergeant [REDACTED] when requested by [REDACTED] is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove whether [REDACTED] made allegations or not against Sergeant [REDACTED].

█████ to Sergeant █████ There are no witnesses to their conversation. Officer █████ stated that although █████ was upset and was complaining about everything, she did not specifically make any allegations against Sergeant █████ or any other officer. Sergeant █████ denied the allegation and indicated that █████ was complaining about the arrest of █████ not Sergeant █████ There are no witnesses to the incident other than █████ who was sitting in the waiting area.

COPA finds that Allegation #2 against Sergeant █████ that she violated Special Order 04-04, III, B-4, in that Sergeant █████ failed to follow the procedures outlined in the Department Directive entitled "Complaint and Disciplinary Procedures," when a Department member is involved in a domestic incident, is NOT SUSTAINED for the same reasons as outlined above in Allegation #1.

COPA finds that Allegation #3 against Sergeant █████ that Sergeant █████ violated General Order 04-04, III, B, in that Sergeant █████ failed to request a member of a higher rank than the Department Member involved in a domestic incident be assigned from the district of occurrence as the investigating Supervisor, is NOT SUSTAINED. Sergeant █████ denied the allegation and stated that she did not believe there were any allegations of a domestic nature against Sergeant █████ at the time of the incident.

COPA finds that Allegation #1 against Officer █████ that he slammed the vehicle door on █████ knee, is NOT SUSTAINED. There is insufficient evidence to prove or disprove that Officer █████ committed this action. █████ admitted that he kicked the squad car door several times after being placed inside the vehicle. Officer █████ denied the allegation and his account was supported by other responding officers. Additionally, witness █████ who observed █████ being placed in the squad car, denied seeing █████ being mistreated by any of the officers while he was being put in the vehicle.
